"Fair play is bonnie play."

CONCERNING THE GAME.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By "Wideawake."

They are great on song-making at Carlton, and knock together a verse or two whenever a deed is done by the club worthy of being extolled in song.

* * *

Saturday's was a mighty deed, and it is up to the poem-builder to construct nothing less than an ode in honour of the occasion. It could be hung on the wall of Tom Skehan's new bays, which were opened up to the public on Saturday.

* * *

But somebody has got off the mark with a little "verse" (so-called, I suppose, for want of a better name) in praise of the phenomenal first quarter's play. The verse was carved with a pen-knife out of a redgum block on Sunday morning in Prince's Park. Hist! the Bogie Man—

"And have ye heard the news, dear Mrs. O'Walter?

The Boys in Blue have gone and done the trick;

Why, they fairly dazzled South—some called it slaughter;

Their victory was sure in 'half a tick.'"

* * *

The redgum poet is decidedly one-eyed so far as he has gone, but possibly his supply of wood ran out before he could chip-carve the description of South's magnificent attempts to gain the day.

* * *

Carlton obtained 39 points to nil in the first quarter, but only 25 in the remaining quarters, as against South's 46. But it was a staggering opening by Carlton—a series of whirling, overwhelming and brilliant dashes, in perfect system, that swept South Melbourne off their feet and heads. They were rattled, amazed, bamboozled—and had the sun in their eyes.

* * *

They pulled themselves together immediately the second quarter was entered upon, and from that period to within a quarter of an hour of the finish Carlton did not feel out of the wood.

* * *

Ten minutes later the pack began to "holler"—Carlton's advantage was certain. South's uphill struggle was ineffectual. They could not push the high gear up the mountain side. They had done well, but they had met their masters. It was a corking game, played as if the very lives of the competitors depended on the result. The pace was terrific, and Carlton set it. They were the faster side, and they kept it going, always careful not to allow any loose man too much latitude. Consequently South's system was checked to a considerable extent.

* * *

It was a surprise indeed, but the old birds of Carlton (after the match) cocked their heads on one side, and, like wise old cockatoos, murmured: "I told you so." They were happy, and deserved to be so.

* * *

I say, girls! Now, this will please you, as it is intended to do. On Saturday, at Carlton, a much-travelled man was criticising the crowd. He had toured England, and seen the "All Blacks" on their conquering tour. This is what he said of the Carlton ladies: "I was just contrasting the crowd with the English attendances. This beats the old world hollow. Why the women here are dressed beautifully, and with better taste than the others."

* * *

It was a day of surprises, and when night closed in with Essendon a beaten team and St. Kilda the victors the public to a man said, "Who'd have thought it?"

* * *

"Not many," one could have answered. St. Kilda had been pulverised and metaphorically stamped in the mud when they last met, Essendon having scored 24.19 to 5.8. But it was a different lot of seaside warriors who buckled on the armour on Saturday. They went to the front in the initial quarter, and stayed there until the battle ended. They beat Essendon because Essendon's forward work was wild and erratic, and because their marksmen were able to make the best use of their opportunities. Yes, Essendon received the shock of their lives. Not a few of their barrackers consider that they should be compelled to practise at goal-shooting.

Then, when you come to look at the Collingwood and Fitzroy match, you cannot help exclaiming with the poet, "What ho!" for it was a magnificent tussle. Everybody who saw it left satisfied with having seen something worth their money. It was great football, with Fitzroy apparently the winning side at the three-quarter bell.

* * *

But Collingwood reproduced its best and most brilliant form, and played up to tradition. They were immense. The 'Roy answered the call well, but the 'Woodsmen bolted and finished amazingly well, slapping up half a dozen goals in the last quarter. They galloped home winners with 15 points to the good.

* * *

Geelong is a decidedly popular club with Melbourne people, and when it was known that Orchard, Grigg and Gray, three good men and true, were unable to play on Saturday, owing to injuries, sympathy was felt for the side, as well as the three players. However, their presence was not necessary, as University made a feeble resistance, and were easily defeated.

Melbourne first; Richmond also ran. That is just about enough to say in regard to the match on the Melbourne ground, for Richmond was clearly out-classed by the company of King George, the captain of the red legs.

* * *

In conquering Richmond Melbourne put up a bigger score than they did all last season, and the season before that. In point of fact, it is their highest tally since 7th June, 1909, when they rattled up 18.9 against Geelong's 5.8. It was also worthy of note that Melbourne's score on Saturday (98 points) was the highest of the League.

* * *

Richmond were a very tired lot of players at the conclusion of the game. It was unfortunate that a couple of their players were injured during the course of the match, but even without that handicap Melbourne would have had no difficulty in scoring the points.

* * *

Melbourne have so far kept up their reputation of past seasons as an unreliable team. They possess a powerful combination, and when in the mood are a hard side to beat.

* * *

It was a remarkable experience to a visitor to the East Melbourne and Melbourne grounds on Saturday to notice the difference in the methods of the field umpires.

* * *

Whereas Nordern, who had charge of the St. Kilda-Essendon match, would free kick instantly players holding the ball when held by an opponent, Elder, at the other ground, allowed the greatest latitude to those having the ball. I hardly saw one free kick given during the last quarter for an infringement of the rule, which clearly says a player must drop the ball as soon as he is caught.

With such conflicting interpretation of the rule by the umpires on an important phase of the game, it is no wonder the players find it hard to understand some decisions given against them. THE FOOTBALL RECORD.

Previous to Saturday last the highest score recorded for years by Melbourne was 18.9, against Geelong, on 7th June, 1909. On that day Harry Brereton bagged seven goals; on Saturday he scored eight of Melbourne's 14.14.

Belcher tired to nothing in last Saturday's match. Essendon's skipper was not so brilliant as usual, and towards the finish could hardly raise a gallop. The heavy work of the previous two games evidently told on Belcher.

Dick Grigg, a Geelong Champion.

Schmidt, Baxter and Thomas gave Essendon's backs no peace. Their hand passing was really clever, whilst Schmidt's goal-kicking was a feature of the match. The goal he got in the first quarter was from a beautiful place kick a long way out.

The honours of the day, as far as the centre line was concerned, at Carlton were with the local men—Bruce, McGregor and Clancy—although McGregor found Mullaly a close and watchful opponent, and Prince was great at times.

Fitzroy v. Essendon, at Fitzroy: Field, Nosedá; boundary, Ince and Kennedy; goal, Jones and Keenan; steward, Appleton.

It was not a difficult task to pick out the Man of the Time in the Collingwood ruck against Fitzroy, for Dan Minogue was the hero. He knocked out cleverly and effectively to Jim Ambler, who was thus enabled to bay three of the four goals that came from Jim's trusty boot.

* * *

A poisoned toe; a month's spell. Poison gone; but toe remains. So Dave Ryan resumed play for Collingwood. Got four goals—one for each of the four matches in which he could not take part.

* * *

Plucky Percy Wilson had a lot of heavy work against Fitzroy. Collingwood being short of rovers, he dashed off as the roamer bold in the first quarter. He was relieved next term; but, like the little brick he is, he roved right through the second half.

* * *

Not many of Richmond's players are to be commended on their efforts against Melbourne. James, Herbert, Oliver and Burns were the exceptions. The last-named showed all his old dash, but was poorly backed up by the rest of the team.

MEN OF THE TIME.

PLAYERS AND PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

By "Chatterer."

The "Record" now calls upon the following to step forward and accept the distinction of Men of the Time at Carlton on Saturday:—Valentine, Moran, Wilson, Bowen, Challis, Dick, Andy McDonald, Jamieson, Clancy, Payne, Bruce, Wells (Carlton); Ricketts, Scobie, Thomas, Charge, Prince, Milne, Sloss, Mullally and Franks (South Melbourne).

* * *

The man who recommended Moran for inclusion in the Carlton team is a good judge of a 'baller. The North Melbournite made a brilliant first appearance in the colours against South Melbourne. He is a game, brainy and nippy forward, and scored first and last goals for the winners.

* * *

Wels. Eicke has been styled the aviator by St. Kilda's admirers. His high marking against Essendon was the best seen on the East Melbourne ground for some time. On one occasion he landed on top of an opponent's head, and turned a complete somersault before striking the ground again.

* * *

Cumberland and Woodcock formed a grand combination in the ruck at East Melbourne. Essendon's followers were quite overshadowed by them. The latter has developed into a fine player—heaps of pace, dash, and a good mark and kick.

* * *

If the cinematograph man were at Carlton when the match ended on Saturday he would have secured a picture worth a ton of money. The sight was wondrously interesting. Crowds rushed the ground, cheered the players, both vanquished and victors, and then surged around the Carltonians, patting them on the back as they tried to get to their room. Valentine was seized and carried shoulder high, tall men slapping him approvingly on the back as he was carried past wriggling and laughing. The little rover had deserved all the praise and attention, for he had played like a lion from the bounce, thanks to the good work of Wilson in the ruck.

* * *

Caldwell did not shine with his customary brilliance at Carlton. He could not get the polish on. Which is another way of complimenting George Bruce, who was opposed to the Southerner.

* * *

One of the Carlton poets a few weeks ago was contemplating the making of a poem entitled "Challis, Where Art Thou?" Since then, however, he has changed the title, but thinks that the words of "See the Conquering Hero" will suit better than anything he might write, for Challis is a champion.

* * *

The order in which the goals were gathered in at Carlton:—Moran, Wells, Bowen, Moran, Bowen, Valentine, Sloss, Charge Ricketts, Marchbank, Hiskins, Sloss, Ricketts, Moran.

* * *

South Melbourne were paralysed by the remarkable opening by Carlton, and never completely recovered, although they made gallant efforts.

* * *

The work of Andy McDonald, in the defence forces, was great at Carlton. A round of ringing cheers was well deserved in the third quarter, when he beat Mortimer out of sight by beautiful play.

* * *

Fred Baring was another Essendonian to be off his game. He did very little against the Saints. Indeed, very few of the 'Dons exhibited anything like the dash of the last couple of matches.

* * *

The exceptions in Essendon's side last week were the one-time champion, Busbridge, who gave a delightful exhibition of how football should be played. Next to him Bill Sewart and Ogden took my fancy.

STOTT'S BUSINESS and CORRESPONDENCE COLLEGES

THE LARGEST, BEST ORGANISED and MOST SUCCESSFUL in AUSTRALIA.

The demand for our graduates is greater than the supply. Our students secure all the best positions because they are trained to efficiency and properly equipped for starting a business career. Business men have no time to train their assistants, hence the importance of a good training. We give you the preparation necessary to ensure success, and if you are unable to attend the College in person, we can give you just the same careful and individual instruction through our CORRESPONDENCE COLLEGE which brings a thorough education RIGHT TO YOUR HOME no matter where you live. Write for a free copy of Handbook W and state in what you are interested. We can help you to succeed. Inquiry costs nothing. Don't put it off. DO IT NOW.

ADDRESS

54 MARKET ST., MELBOURNE

Ricketts, Sloss and Milne brought off some magnificent passes at Carlton.

The proprietor of the "Record" desires to remind the public that the "Record" possesses the sole right from the League to publish the players' numbers, which have been paid for by the "Record," and which have been copyrighted. He desires to draw the attention of the advertisers and the general public to the alterations in regard to the numbers of the University and Richmond players, which have been sanctioned by the League, and which appear only in the "Record," the officially recognised publication.

Norris (Fitzroy), on Tom Willoughby's style of play, told the investigation committee: "He has a rough method, and tears through the ruck. If you are in front you go down. It's just the same as myself." (Laughter.)

* * *

Among the witnesses called on behalf of Willoughby before the investigation committee was Mr. Webb, treasurer of the West Australian League, and a member of the West Perth club: "Willoughby was regarded as the most gentlemanly player of the Coastal League. My own team's followers reckoned that Tom Willoughby saw nothing but the ball."

* * *

Bob Monk, the "versatile," was good in all parts of the field. Back or forward, it is all the same to Monk. He helped himself to two goals during the day. George and Hendrie followed up to standard, whilst the centre line was particularly strong. Pearce, back in his old place, gave a fine exhibition, one run past the centre bringing down the house.

* * *

In the St. Kilda-Essendon match the goals were kicked in the following order: — Kirkwood, Lynch, Schmidt, Schmidt, Walker, Woodcock, Sellars, Schmidt, Caine, Best, Dangerfield, Baring, Best, Chalmers, Ogden, Schmidt.

* * *

Jim Jackson, Collingwood's wing man, has yet to meet his master. He was in rare buckle against Fitzroy. In the same match, however, the brilliant Buist beat Percy Gibb.

The BEST and only the BEST !

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

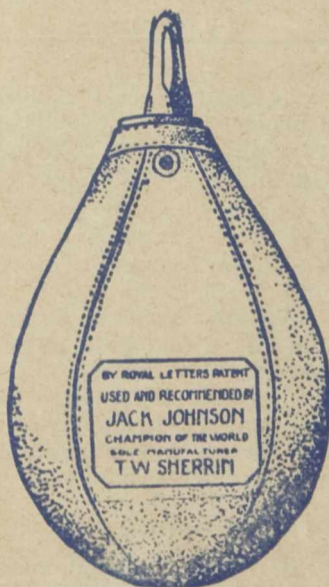

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

Nobody can say that Murphy is prodigal in the matter of free kicks. He awarded Carlton 24 and South Melbourne 32. They went thus:—South 10, 6, 5, 11; Carlton 9, 5, 5, 5. At Geelong James handed out 34 to University and 28 to the home team. At Collingwood each team received 38.

Pat. Shea, Essendon's brilliant half-forward, expects to be able to reappear on the battlefield shortly. The committee want him to play to-day.

Fitzroy committee on Tuesday evening elected Sam McMichael a life member of the club. The honour was well merited.

municated to Tom Willoughby on Wednesday night the decision of the League to stand him down for four matches for having struck Hedley Tomkins, Willoughby remarked "Well, gentlemen, I can assure you I shall not trouble you again."

THE FOOTBALL RECORD.

Farrell and Thorpe defended well against heavy odds, and Oliver gave the forwards many opportunities, which were not availed of.

* * *

For Melbourne it is becoming somewhat monotonous singing the praises of their little champion, Tomkins, who was never in better form. Brereton put all the other forwards in the shade by getting 8 goals, most of them the result of fine shots.

* * *

Wal Johnson soared sky-high, and otherwise played great football for Fitzroy for three quarters. Nobody worked harder, but the severity of the job told on him, and in the final quarter he faded away.

* * *

A marvellously clever and artistic footballer is Slater, of Geelong. He easily scored the honours against University.

* * *

Billy Eason, the Geelong captain, sent Healey up forward on Saturday, and as a result Healey nabbed four sixers.

THE VERY LATEST.

Fitzroy are having hard luck just now. Tom Willoughby is out for four matches, and Jack Cooper, Percy Heron and Holmes are on the injured list. Collins, H. Heron, Laver and Wells will fill the vacancies.

* * *

University will have a fairly strong side in the field to-day. Lang a (follower from the Metropolitan 18), Martin, Willis and Anderson will be playing in place of Doig (who may not play again this season), Park, Corbett, Stevens and McCracken. "Record" readers will have the advantage of being able to distinguish the players on consulting the official numbers, which have been considerably altered this week.

* * *

Melbourne will not finally pick their team until this afternoon. Captain George and Goal-getter Brereton have had a battle with the "flu" during the week, and Kennedy will not play. Francis and Hickey will be in the team, and Maguire (Richmond's forward), if he got his permit last night, will also be played.

Wilson will not be playing for Carlton to-day. Green or Loughman will play.

* * *

Percy Gibb bruised his heel and Prendergast injured his knee last Saturday. These two players and L. Gibb are out of Collingwood's team to-day. Cochran (a half-forward from Flemington), Anderson and Laxton have been included.

* * *

Morrissey and Hattam resume their places in St. Kilda's team to-day.

* * *

Essendon will not pick their eighteen until this afternoon. Chalmers will not be playing.

* * *

Richmond find places to-day for Hogan (from Tragalgar), Ellingsen (Geelong junior), Woodhead, Love and Bennie. Maguire, Ohlsen, Price, Pattinson and Danks are out.

* * *

Pentland and Casey (injured leg) are out of South Melbourne's team. Bob Deas and Carpenter are in. Grimshaw has influenza.

* * *

Grigg, Orchard and Brownlees have recovered from recent injuries, and will take the field for Geelong. Scown will be playing again. Healey, A. Eason, Martin and Corder will take a spell.

* * *

Jack Cooper is talking about resigning the captaincy of Fitzroy. If he should do so the position will go probably to either Lal McLennan or Bill Walker.
